Inspired by nature

Designer Stefan Diez is responsible for the clear lines of the Kaldewei Nuio Duo. It integrates discreetly and harmoniously into the bathroom ambience, but can also emphasise its special character as a design eye-catcher thanks to its sculptural presence. The flowing shape is reminiscent of pools created by water and combines natural geometry with modern minimalism. Generous dimensions, ergonomic back sections and the pronounced neck and shoulder area ensure luxurious comfort in the deep bathtub. The sophisticated Kaldewei material stands for longevity and sustainability.
